Looking Ahead

- We have a Speaker!
- Spending agenda:
 - CR into January or April (triggering across-the-board trim?)
 - FY24 negotiations from November onward
 - Revisit FY25 discretionary levels
 - Regular order

What to know about new House Speaker Mike Johnson

Rep. Mike Johnson (R-La.) was elected speaker of the House on Wednesday after a 22-day deadlock that saw three previous Republican candidates nominated and then defeated on the House floor.

Why it matters: The four-term conservative is both short-tenured and little-known relative to others who have risen to the speakership, but he became a consensus choice inside a deeply divided Republican caucus over the past 24 hours. He'll now have to try to keep that caucus united behind him heading into some bruising legislative fights.

Thank you.
