

Guiding Principles of Nonprofit Funder and Research Institution Partnerships

Jackie Hausman Kenneth Rainin Foundation

Goal

To establish a framework that encourages long-term nonprofit funder and research institution collaborations

Background

- Adapted from University Industry Demonstration Partnership Principles
- Outline principles to foster a productive relationship
- Missions define the scope of potential collaborations

3 Guiding Principles

Guiding Principle 1

Collaborative efforts and activities should focus on fostering effective long-term partnerships based on mutual trust.

Guiding Principle 2

A successful collaboration supports both missions and recognizes and appreciates the partner's differences and respective constraints.

Guiding Principle 3

Focus on the benefits that will result from efficient and effective collaborations.

Current Initiatives

- Streamlining Administrative Requirements
- Research Operating Costs
- Intellectual Property and Technology Transfer
